

The academic committee of the school goes through the content of books by different publishers and finalizes the books for the next session. The committee checks the content language level, cost effectiveness, presentation, and directions of NCERT while finalizing the books.